

- ✚ pledge to end hunger through nutrition education.
- ✚ pledge to work on hunger related issues and work to promote increasing participation in nutrition programs.
- ✚ pledge to connect with Ministry on the Margins.
- ✚ pledge to learn more about how to food pantries operate.
- ✚ pledge to help more people.
- ✚ pledge to keep hunger as a key issue and I will continue to work on it in the coming year.
Thank you!
- ✚ pledge to learn about all programs and pass along what I know.
- ✚ pledge to give organic potatoes and carrots from my garden to the food pantry. I also pledge to get I involved with the local Backpack Program in Bismarck.
- ✚ pledge to meet with every group helping end poverty to help people reach an economically stable life! Minimum wage, living wage, child care, paid sick leave, pay equity.
- ✚ pledge to follow my heart and move to a career ending poverty and hunger.
- ✚ pledge to have coffee with Waylon.
- ✚ pledge to minimize food waste and consider food waste in all conferences I hold.
- ✚ pledge to find some recipes for using more products on the food distribution and share information with other food pantry volunteers.
- ✚ pledge to develop new ways to fight hunger in my community.
- ✚ pledge to get a Backpack Program at Bismarck Head Start.
- ✚ pledge to continue to fight poverty/hunger stereotypes and to advocate for those who have no voice.
- ✚ pledge to volunteer at my church food pantry.
- ✚ pledge to donate $100 to milk matters.
- ✚ pledge to continue to work to connect and build up those working and volunteering to provide food to people.
- ✚ pledge to continue to work on policy changes to increase assets of those with low and moderate incomes.